RE: Antidumping duty scope determination on aluminum extrusions from the People's Republic of China (A-570-967)

Notice of the lifting of suspension occurred on the message date of these instructions. See paragraph 5 below.

1. Commerce received a scope ruling request from Klik-Klik Systems Inc. Commerce issued a final scope determination on 11/19/2014 that MagPoles which Klik-Klik Systems Inc. imports are not within the scope of the antidumping duty order on aluminum extrusions from the People's Republic of China (A-570-967).
2. Commerce determined that Klik-Klik Systems Inc.'s MagPoles are telescoping extension poles consisting of aluminum extrusion tubes, fiberglass tubes, plastic handles, plastic/copper buttons, steel springs, steel rolling pins, zinc end pieces, aluminum rivets, rubber bumpers, and paper labels, are finished goods containing aluminum extrusions as parts that are fully and permanently assembled and completed at the time of entry. Therefore, Klik-Klik Systems Inc.'s MagPoles are not within the scope of the antidumping duty order on aluminum extrusions from the People's Republic of China under the finished goods exclusion.
3. For all entries of MagPoles not within scope that remain unliquidated on or after 11/12/2010, CBP shall terminate suspension and liquidate entries of product not within scope which were entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption.
4. Refund any cash deposits and release any bonds relating to entries of MagPoles as described above.
5. These instructions constitute notice of the lifting of suspension liquidation of entries of MagPoles, entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption on or after 11/12/2010.
6. The assessment of antidumping duties by CBP on shipments or entries of this merchandise is subject to the provisions of section 778 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended. Section 778 requires that CBP pay interest on overpayments or assess interest on underpayments of the required amounts deposited as estimated antidumping duties. The interest provisions are not applicable to cash or bonds posted as estimated antidumping duties before the date of publication of the antidumping duty order. Interest shall be calculated from the date payment of estimated antidumping duties are required through the date of liquidation. The rate at which such interest is payable is the rate in effect under section 6621 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 for such period.

7. Unless instructed otherwise, for all other shipments of aluminum extrusions from the People's Republic of China not covered by paragraph 2 above, you shall continue to collect cash deposits of estimated antidumping duties for the merchandise at the current rates.

8. If there are any questions by the importing public regarding this message, please contact the Call Center for the Office of AD/CVD Operations, Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce at (202) 482-0984. CBP ports should submit their inquiries through authorized CBP channels only. (This message was generated by OIII: JRT).

9. There are no restrictions on the release of this information.
